Dear Parents / Carers,

It has been a busy week at Barnwood Park, but a really enjoyable one. On Monday, we welcomed colleagues from a local school who were so impressed with our students' behaviour in lessons. We always enjoy supporting local schools (as well as learning from them) and it was great for colleagues to see Barnwood at its very best. However, we also had a number of other visitors on Monday, too. Students from Shukutoku Sugamo Senior High School in Japan joined us for our Japanese Cultural Exchange. Thanks to Mr Lewis for organising, and also to our amazing student tour guides and our performing artists. Our visitors absolutely loved their morning and got a real insight into what life is like at Barnwood Park before heading off into Gloucester.

Later on this week, students attended a favourite place of mine - Plock Court, for a cross country fixture! Hopefully we have some future Gloucester North Parkrunners ready to take on the mud of Plock Court on a more regular basis. In academic news, Year 11s received their PPE results on Thursday afternoon. Whatever the outcome of these results, our message is simple: keep working with us! Plenty of students were delighted with their results, but for those who weren't there is still time to make the progress that our Year 11 cohort so richly deserve. They have been absolutely excellent so far this year.

We hope you have a great weekend and will see you all next week.
